AN INFORMATION FILED AGAINST DAVIS

court, and they contain a reference to the fact that the Territorial Supreme Court gave a judgment of disbarment. The information is as follows:

"Robert W. Breckons, United States Attorney in and for the District and Territory of Hawaii, on information and belief, respectfully gives this Court to understand and be informed:

"First.—That all the times hereinafter mentioned, and for several years prior to the filing of this information, George A. Davis has been and now is an attorney-at-law, duly admitted to practice before this Honorable Court, and that up to and including the 10th day of August, A. D. 1903, the said George A. Davis was an attorney-at-law, duly admitted and licensed in the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii to practice law in all courts of the Territory of Hawaii; that under and by virtue of such admission to practice in this Court, the said George A. Davis is still practicing before this Court, and under and by virtue of said license granted by the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii, continued to practice in the Courts of the Territory of Hawaii up to the 10th day of August, A. D. 1903.

"Second.—That said George A. Davis has been guilty of professional improprieties, malpractice, deceit and infidelity to his client, and gross misconduct in the manner following, to wit:

"Third.—That on or about the 2nd day of September, 1902, the said George A. Davis procured himself to be re-trained as attorney for one Maria S. Davis, and instigated and advised her to bring proceedings before a Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit of the Territory of Hawaii, at Chambers, against her brother, one John K. Sumner, wherein and whereby she asked that said John K. Sumner be declared non compos mentis and placed under guardianship. That thereafter and on or about the 12th day of October, 1902, the said John K. Sumner and Maria S. Davis, parties to said action, agreed to compromise and discontinue said action, on the payment by John K. Sumner to Maria S. Davis of the sum of Ten thousand ($10,000) dollars, and said Maria S. Davis, through her son, one R. W. Davis, notified said George A. Davis, her attorney, of her intention to so settle and discontinue her said action. That said George A. Davis, though claiming to act as her attorney, refused to settle and discontinue said action, unless he was paid the sum of Five thousand ($5,000) dollars, and threatened to prevent the settlement and discontinuance of said action, unless said sum of money was paid to him, and refused to take any steps to settle said action until arrangements were made whereby said Davis did receive the sum of Five thousand ($5,000) dollars as counsel fees. And complainant charges that the said actions of George A. Davis were grossly improper, and that the said George A. Davis by so doing was guilty of malpractice and infidelity to his client.

"Fourth.—That the said John K. Sumner was a man of upwards of the age of eighty-four years, with little or no knowledge of business, or the value of money, and by reason of his great age and lack of knowledge was easily influenced and controlled; all of which facts were well known to said George A. Davis.

"Fifth.—And complainant further alleges that on or about the first day of December, 1902, the said George A. Davis made certain false representations to one R. W. Davis and John K. Sumner, to wit: That he, the said George A. Davis, could immediately obtain for said John K. Sumner, the sum of Forty-eight thousand twenty-five ($48,250) dollars at that time deposited with the Banking House of Bishop & Company, of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, on condition that the said John K. Sumner would pay to him, for said service in obtaining the money, the sum of Three thousand ($3,000) dollars, which representations of said George A. Davis were wholly false and untrue, and said Davis knew them to be so, and made them for the purpose of deceiving said John K. Sumner and obtaining from him a promissory note for the amount of Three thousand ($3,000) dollars.

"Sixth.—That on or about the 1st day of December, 1903, the said George A. Davis persuaded and induced the said John K. Sumner, by the means of the false representations aforesaid, to sign a promissory note for the sum of Three thousand ($3,000) dollars in the words and terms as follows:

"$3,000.00 Honolulu, Dec. 1, 1902.
"On demand, for value received, I promise to pay George A. Davis, or order, the sum of Three thousand ($3,000) dollars, at the Banking House of Bishop & Co., without interest.

(Signed) JOHN K. SUMNER."

"That at the time of receiving said note said Davis had given no value therefor, but the said John K. Sumner, misled by the misrepresentations of said George A. Davis, believed that said note was necessary to insure the obtaining immediately of the sum of Forty-eight thousand and twenty-five ($48,250) dollars by the said George A. Davis from the aforesaid bank; and that upon the failure of the said George A. Davis to obtain the said sum, said note would have no value or effect.

"That said George A. Davis, in violation of his professional oath, and duty as an attorney and professional adviser, thus falsely and fraudulently obtained said note from the said John K. Sumner, and refused to return the same, and kept the same, and did not obtain from the bank the sum of Forty-eight thousand and twenty-five ($48,250) dollars, as he had represented himself able to do, and was thus guilty of gross professional misconduct, deceit and infidelity to his client.

"Seventh.—That on or about the 25th day of October, 1902, Gulistan F. Roper, as Trustee for said John K. Sumner, filed a petition addressed to the Presiding Judge of the Circuit Court of the Territory of Hawaii, entitled "Gulistan F. Roper, as Trustee of John K. Sumner, plaintiff, vs. John K. Sumner, Victoria Ellis Buffendeau, William S. Ellis, John S. Ellis, Maria S. Davis, Wally Davis, Right Roy, Gulistan F. Roper, Bishop of Panopolis and S. M. Damon and S. E. Damon, co-partners, doing business under the firm name of Bishop & Company, Bankers, defendants. That said George A. Davis procured himself to be appointed as one of the attorneys for said John K. Sumner, and assisted in the conduct of said case on behalf of said John K. Sumner.

"Eighth.—That on or about the 12th day of January, 1903, by decree of the Honorable J. T. De Bolt, First Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit of the Territory of Hawaii, the said trust deed to Gulistan F. Roper was canceled, and the said sum of Forty-eight thousand and twenty-five ($48,250) dollars was ordered paid to John K. Sumner, from which decree an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii.

"Ninth.—That on or about the 25th day of June, 1903, the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii rendered a decision wherein and whereby the aforesaid decree of the Honorable J. T. De Bolt, First Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit of the Territory of Hawaii was confirmed, and by and under which the sum of Forty-eight thousand and twenty-five ($48,250) dollars was paid to the said John K. Sumner.

"That on or about the 26th day of June, 1903, said George A. Davis threatened said John K. Sumner, well knowing his weakness and inability to understand financial matters, that unless the said John K. Sumner should pay to him, the said George A. Davis the sum of Two thousand five hundred ($2,500) dollars for his services in the said action of Gulistan F. Roper against said John K. Sumner et al, he would sue the said Sumner for the aforesaid promissory note for three thousand ($3,000) dollars fraudulently obtained as aforesaid by the said George A. Davis, and would garnish the said Forty-eight thousand twenty-five ($48,250) dollars obtained by said John K. Sumner under the said decree in said action, and delay the matter so that said John K. Sumner would be unable to obtain the possession and control of said money, and that by means of said threats and intimidations and preying upon the fears of said John K. Sumner, who had great dread of litigation, as said George A. Davis well knew, the said George A. Davis did extort from the said John K. Sumner the sum of Two thousand ($2,000) dollars. And complainant charges that the actions on the part of said George A. Davis were grossly improper, and that said George A. Davis was guilty of malpractice, deceit and infidelity to his client in resorting to the same.

"Tenth.—And heretofore and on, to-wit, the 10th day of August, A. D. 1903, said George A. Davis was, by judgment of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii, disbarred from practice in any of the courts of the Territory of Hawaii; which said judgment still remains in full force and effect.

"Wherefore, said Robert W. Breckons, on information and belief, charges said George A. Davis with professional improprieties, malpractice, deceit and infidelity to his client, and gross misconduct; and asks that the said George A. Davis may be cited to appear and answer this information, at the present February A. D. 1904 special term of this Honorable court; and that if the charges herein may be sustained, your Honor will disbar from the roll of practitioners, suspend from practice or otherwise deal with the said George A. Davis as under the pleadings and proofs may be proper.

"And the said Robert W. Breckons further prays that the said process may issue notwithstanding this information is not verified by the oath of him, and said Robert W. Breckons representing to the Court that such charges are preferred at the request of the said George A. Davis."

ASSASSINS UP FOR ARRAIGNMENT

ing by Glennan and discharged from the camp. They went away about 4 p. m. going down to a small village. They went to the house of an old Japanese whose wife also lived there. The discharged Japs drank considerable sake at that place and left about dark. All of the conversation between two visitors was overheard by the old man. Later he heard an explosion far away. The two Japs returned soon after the explosion, took their belongings and went away. One of the Japanese Kuda, went to the house of a friend at Hanapepe about 4 o'clock the morning of the 9th, and told him how he and Onishi had killed Glennan. There were six other Japanese in the house. All of them appeared as witnesses for the government to relate of the confession. One of the defendants is charged with putting a lighted cigarette to the fuse. He was arrested at Koia while his accomplice went to Honolulu and was brought back by Deputy Sheriff Rice on the steamer last week.

In the conspiracy cases the less guilty ones were permitted by the authorities to turn state evidence. There is strong evidence against Onishi and Kuda and the authorities are hopeful of securing their conviction at the trials next month.

Sheriff Coney and his deputies have worked very hard on the case and are deserving of praise for their efforts. Chester Doyle, the official United States Japanese interpreter, has been here for some days on a vacation. He has been associated with the local officers in the case and has given valuable assistance and advice in the case.

FIGHTING THE STORM

Keo Island. The road department had to break away the outlet to the sea here, as it proved too small, and the water was rising in a flood behind it. The stopway was simply broken out of the way. For a time Maui Island was not an island at all, for the water rose above it.

Many private yards suffered floods, and a large number of people were practically weather-bound in their homes, for the streets were impassable. The general damage was, however, less than in previous heavy storms, for the streets and sewers of Honolulu are in better condition now than ever before.

THE KOREA HAS FOOD FOR RUSSIANS

The S. S. Korea arrived this morning from San Francisco with her usual large list of passengers. She had 48 cabin passengers for this port and many for through ports. The vessel goes to Manila this trip. In spite of the fact that war between Japan and Russia is so imminent, there are many people on the Korea bound for Japanese ports.

The cargo on the Korea this trip is of an especially interesting character for a vast amount of beef which is believed to be intended for Russia is in the big steamer. This shipment which goes to Nagasaki, consists of no less than 52 carloads of beef.

The vessel left San Francisco February 2 so has four days later mail and files of the Mailland papers.

Nothing was sighted on the voyage down. Rough weather was experienced during much of the trip. Last night heavy rain was encountered. The weather was so hazy that Captain Seabury could not sight the island so did not bring the vessel along until shortly before 7 o'clock this morning.

Among the passengers going through is Horace G. Burt formerly president of the Union Pacific R. R. Company. He is accompanied by his wife and they are bound for Hong Kong.

L. R. Tuttle is the manager for the Gertz interests of San Francisco. He is making a trip to Hong Kong accompanied by his wife.

J. N. Sutton is a mining engineer who is going out to China.

H. S. Locksmith is connected with the railroad operating out of Shanghai.

E. S. Benson is connected with the Herriman syndicate of railroads. He is accompanied by his family and is going out to Hong Kong.

H. C. Butcher is a wealthy Chicago man who is going out to Yokohama accompanied by quite a party of friends.

F. Churchman and Captain A. Smallwood are war correspondents going out to Yokohama to follow the Japanese forces. The latter saw service during the Boer war.

S. H. Boardman and wife of Los Angeles stopped at Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Low returned from the mainland.

E. R. McClannahan and wife were returning passengers from the mainland.

L. A. Thurston was on the returning passenger list.

The Korea will sail at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning from Naval wharf No. 2 for the Orient and Manila.

THREE MORE GUILTY.

Three more Japanese defendants in the conspiracy cases made pleas of guilty this morning before Judge Dole. Sentence was postponed by consent for two weeks.

CUNNINGHAM QUILTS

The Favorite Saloon, owned by "Billy" Cunningham, closed its doors this morning and may not be reopened. After a long period of hard times Cunningham decided to quit, but it is reported that creditors may take hold of the business and run it. The Favorite is at the corner of Bethel and Hotel streets.

BACK FROM ITALY

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bonzi arrived by the Korea, returning from a wedding trip to Italy. She is a daughter of Col. Z. S. Spaulding. They were married some months ago on Kauai and then went to Italy to visit his people and ancestral estates and her mother, who on account of her health is obliged to live in Italy. They will go from here to Kauai where it is their intention to live for some time. He is an Italian nobleman with an honorable record in the Italian army.
